This Notice describes your legal rights, advises you of our privacy practices, and lets you know how our office is permitted to use and disclose PHI about you.

This Notice is covered under HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act). Any state law that is more stringent than the HIPAA rules and regulations has priority.

Uses and Disclosures Requiring Your Consent

- For treatment: We may disclose your PHI to other mental health care practitioners who are involved in providing your mental health care. - For mental health care operations: We may use/disclose your PHI in the course of operating our program. For example, we may use your PHI in evaluating the quality of services provided, creating reports that do not individually identify you, or disclose your PHI to our accountant or attorney for auditing purposes.
- For payment: We may use/disclose your PHI in the course of collecting outstanding payment from you. For example, if failure for paying on a bad check in a timely manner, we may employ the State Attorney's office to collect on the outstanding debt. Or if you fail to pay on your account in a timely manner, we may employ an attorney or collection agency to collect any outstanding debt.

Exceptions: Although your consent is usually required for the use/disclosure of your PHI for the activities described above, the law allows us to use/disclosure of your PHI for the activities described above, the law allows us to use/disclose your PHI without your consent in certain situations. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

For uses and disclosures beyond treatment and operational purposes we are required to have your written authorization (signed permission), unless the use or disclosure falls within one of the exceptions described below. Like consents, authorizations can be revoked at any time to stop future uses/disclosures except to the extent that we have already undertaken an action in reliance upon your authorization.
